The impressive new home pictured above is the latest offering from the Rasevic Construction Company. The elegant Frederick Taylor design combines time-honored traditional elements with modern sensibilities such as the soaring two-story ceiling in the family room and en-suite baths for each bedroom. The charm of the classical front porch and the romance of the rear open air loggia compliment the pleasant setting in this highly desirable, convenient location. The gourmet kitchen includes a Wolf six-burner gas cooktop and two stainless steel wall ovens, a French door style KitchenAid refrigerator and a Bosch dishwasher. With 10-foot ceilings on the main level and quality finishes everywhere, this wonderful home is a rare commodity in this part of Bethesda. Please enjoy your visit and thank you for your interest.
