Welcome to 3807 Williams Lane. Built in 1868, the "Frank Simmons House" is a 5 bedroom, 3.5 bath, 3-level Victorian home. This historic property has many of the original wavy-glass pane windows and wide trim mouldings reminiscent of the era in which it was built. Wonderful wrap-around porches and tasteful expansions make this fully renovated 3500 sq. ft. home a real gem.

The Perry Cabin, an award winning guest house, was designed and built in 2007 lending another 1625 sq. ft. to this unique property preserving the charm of the past while providing the modern amenities of the present.

Ideal for entertaining, this home offers spacious indoor and outdoor areas to gather family, friends and neighbors.

For the past 80 years, the Village of Chevy Chase, Section 5 annual 4th of July parade, led by a fire truck, has lined up in front of this well known home. There is a brass marker on the front porch that says "4th of July Parade Starts Here."

The Frank Simmons's House and the Perry Cabin Guest House will convey with a wonderfully rich history dating back to 1868. Opportunities to own a home like this do not come often. The time has come for the present owners to pass on the privilege of ownership to the next residents of 3807 Williams Lane.
