Serving Bethesda, Chevy
Chase and DC since 1956!

The bright, airy kitchen addition pictured above is the centerpiece of all that is great about this house! Flooded with light, this cheerful space features abundant cabinetry, granite counters, stainless steel appliances and an inviting breakfast nook overlooking a spacious deck and a private backyard — perfect for entertaining! There is a wonderful screened porch too. The layout flows naturally around the main level family room, office or homework room, dining room and the living room with its cozy fireplace. There are three good-sized bedrooms upstairs (a little larger than you would find in the older Wood Acres homes) along with two updated baths that shine. Gorgeous hardwood flooring runs throughout the main and upper levels. Downstairs offers a well-lit recreation room that is excellent play space, the garage and a nice utility/laundry room with ample storage. There is a half bath downstairs as well as a powder room on the main level. This well-maintained home is in excellent condition with a newer roof and water heater and a recently expanded concrete driveway—basketball anyone? It is indeed rare to find a home that offers such a stellar kitchen and overall great condition at this price level in Wood Acres. Please enjoy your visit and thank you for your interest!

Life along the Massachusetts Avenue corridor is good, and those of us who live here find it to be just the right blend of suburban life with close-in convenience. Enjoy the arts and crafts at Glen Echo Park, take a leisurely walk along the C&O Canal towpath or bike about a mile and a half to the Crescent Trail and ride into thriving downtown Bethesda or all the way to Georgetown. Shopping at the Little Fall Mall is only two blocks away. Excellent!

4833 Bethesda Avenue # 200

Wood Acres has a stellar reputation as one of the most desirable areas of Bethesda, known for attractive brick colonials lining its shady neighborhood streets. The atmosphere in Wood Acres is friendly and there is a spirit of community that makes people proud to live here. The neighborhood elementary school was essentially rebuilt in 2001-2002 and went through another expansion in 2016. This unique Montgomery County school has its own planetarium and the park behind the school is a "Norman Rockwell" setting for children of all ages. You may have even heard about the fabulous Halloween festivities or the old-fashioned Fourth of July parade and picnic that are famous in this part of Bethesda. Owning a home in Wood Acres gives you more than just a building with some rooms in it – you get the warm feeling of belonging that comes with being part of a wonderful tradition that has been carefully nurtured by its residents for a very long time. It's an excellent place to live and you will love it!
